Important info for the 2011-2012 season. We are going to cut the cost of our mailing/copying expenses. Communication will start taking place via email and our website www.khsra.net/jrhigh.html. It is VITAL that I have current email addresses. I would like to have not only the contestant's email address, but also at least 1 parent's email address for the mailings. I will not send more information than is necessary via email. Please make yourself familiar with the KHSRA website as we plan to make membership forms only available via the website next year unless someone does not have internet access.
